

NUTRITION PROGRAMS

Women Infants & Children Program (WIC)

(608) 267-1111

WIC offices are currently closed, however, they are able to take new clients by phone.

FoodShare Program (SNAP, "Food Stamps")

(608) 242-7441

FoodShare Helpline: (877) 366-3635

New participant applications are now being done over the phone. If you or a family member lost your job due to COVID-19, you may qualify.

Households will temporarily receive the maximum benefit (based on household size) for April and May 2020. For example, a household of one will receive $194 per month.

Ageing & Disability Resource Center

(608) 240-7400

Information and meal sites and home delivery of meals in Dane County for people 60 years of age and older and for individuals 18-59 years of age with disabilities.

Meals on Wheels

(608) 276-7598

Noon or evening meals delivered to anyone who is homebound every day of week and every week of the year. No age requirement. Minimal cost and financial assistance available.

Tip: Some food pantries follow the Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) income guidelines (<=185% of the Federal Poverty Level) for determining who can use the pantry. The 2020 income cut-offs by household size can be found at: <https://www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/nutrition/tefap/eligibility.htm>

Usually, you won't need to prove income with documentation. It is just a self-report.

Dane County COVID-19 Food Resources

ABOUT THIS GUIDE

This guide provides important updates on food resources available for you and your family listed on the 2020 Dane County Food Resources Guide available here:

<https://www.publichealthmdc.com/documents/2020%20Food%20Resource%20Guide-Eng.pdf>

The food pantries and meal programs in this guide have switched to curb-side or drive-through service. Typically, this means that guests will drive to the pantry and wait for a volunteer to bring groceries to their vehicle, and meals are pre-packaged and handed out at the pantry door or in a parking lot.

The information in this guide is subject to change.

For more information, please contact the individual program or pantry or the United Way Helpline at 2-1-1.
